1976 Index to Selected Articles in PRINTING AND PUBLISHING Quarterly Industry Report

Title	Issue
Duties Removed on $5.3 Million of U.S. Printed Products	Winter
Graphic Arts Outlook Reflects Upswing in Economy	Winter
Patterns of Concentration in the U.S. Graphic Arts Industries	Winter
Wages and Hours in the U.S. Printing Industry	Spring
Gains in Graphic Industry Growth	Spring
Australia's Markets for U.S. Printed Products	Spring
Plant Capacity of U.S. Printing and Publishing Establishments	Summer
Growth Pace of 50 Largest Printing Centers Trails Nation's Printing Activity	Summer
Projections of Output and Employment in the U.S. Graphic Arts Industry	Summer
Paperback Book Market Shows Moderate Growth	Fall
Graphic Arts Costs and Expenditures for Pollution Abatement	Fall
Graphic Industries Ranks High Among All U.S. Manufacturing	Fall

TELEPHONE NUMBER CHANGE

The U.S. Department of Commerce telephone numbers in the Washington, D.C. area have changed. The 3-digit prefix 967 has been changed to 377 for all numbers in the Main Commerce Building. Generally, there has been no change in the last four digits of the current number. The Area Code is still 202.

As an example: the telephone number of the Printing and Publishing Program was 967-4115, and has now been changed to 377-4115.